SIGN THE PROTOCOL

Says Spain and End the Fighting Without Delay.

Cambon Will Obey Before The Day Is Gone—Peace Commission Next.

THE PRESIDENT WILL CALL OFF THE DOGS OF WAR.

Washington, Aug. 11.—(Special)—Spain has been heard from in reply to the protocol sent yesterday in the nature of an ultimatum. Ambassador Cambon has received authority to sign the document, and this must be done before mid-night.

The appointment of a peace commission will be the next step.

Then it must be ratified by the Spanish cortes and the United States Senate. It requires a two-thirds majority of the Senate to ratify a treaty.

An armistice may be declared at any time after the commission is appointed, or pending the ratification of the treaty.

Should the treaty be ratified peace will be proclaimed.

It will be some time before the formal declaration of peace can be reached, but today's business will stop hostilities as soon as the armies can be communicated with.

Fire in the Bunkers,

Burned for Several Days.

New York, August 11.—(Special)—A dispatch to the World from Manila Bay, August 4, via Hong Kong, says:

The third Philippine expedition is here twenty two days out from Honolulu. Never did an expedition encounter more dangers or endure more perils. On the voyage six men and one officer died and fifty more were taken sick. Typhoid and meningitis played havoc on the transports. Two firemen went insane and leaped overboard. But fire was the worst peril of all.

The bunkers were still burning when the Morgan City arrived here. Then for the first time the troops learned of their danger. The flames were extinguished after the ship had been in port a few hours.

Put Up or Shut Up.

Called Down By the Protocol.

Washington, Aug. 11.—(Special)—The protocol, now in Spain's hands, asks for the evacuation of Cuba and Porto Rico, and is other respects conforms to the preliminary peace conditions imposed by this government. But there is a peculiarity about the instrument. It partakes of all the elements of an ultimatum and by the means of it Spain is notified that not a single subject foreign to the propositions made by the President will be allowed to enter the deliberations of the peace commissioners.

Now everything depends upon Spain's answer. There is not one chance in a hundred that she will decline to bow to the inevitable.

Injustice to Schley.

Sampson Shown Favoritism.

Washington, Aug. 11.—(Special)—The President has determined to recommend to Congress that Acting Rear Admiral Sampson be advanced eight numbers, and Commodore Schley six numbers. This will result in making each a Rear Admiral, but with Commodore Schley ranking immediately below Admiral Sampson.

Capt. Clark, of the Oregon, will be recommended for an advance of six numbers in the Captain's grade, and Lieut. Commander Wainwright will go up eight numbers. Other promotions throughout the fleet will be recommended.

Colombia Will Liquidate.

Doesn't Want Trouble With Italy.

Colon, Colombia, Aug. 11.—(Special)—Advices from Bogota, the capital of the republic, under date of Sunday, are to the effect that the senate has passed a bill authorizing the executive to pay all the demands of Italy arising from the Cerruti claims. The senate also passed a bill opening a credit to cover the amount of the claims, which is in the neighborhood of $300,000. The Italian government has been notified of the action of the senate.

The last ballot resulted as follows: Kehoe 42, Sharp 18, Williams 16, Cole 23, Powers 8.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
HENRY D. ALLEN, OF UNION COUNTY.

The wheelmen are holding their national cycle meet in Indianapolis this week.

Oscar Turner has announced himself a Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fifth district.

Gov. F. A. Briggs, of North Dakota, died Tuesday of consumption. He will be succeeded by Lieut. J. M. Devine.

A Bowling Green horse was electrocuted this day from a shock on a live wire that had fallen across the pike.

Clarksville is to have another of her "Carnivals," this fall and hopes to have enough people on hand to tramp down the grass in the streets.

Montauk, where the soldiers are going, is a Long Island seaside point. It probably gets its name from the fact that "money talks" at such places.

The latest is that Fred Van Rensselaer, the Owensburg postmaster, is jointly accused with Franks in the matter of violating the civil service laws by getting up a political machine.

Italy's ultimatum of twenty days to Colombia over the payment of the Cerruti claim expires August 13, at which time the Italian warships threaten to bombard Colon unless the claim has been paid.

The little town of Clarendon, Ark., has been shaken from center to circumference by a tragedy in which seven lives were lost. John T. Orr was murdered at the instigation of his wife Saturday night. His murder was quickly followed by the lynching of five negroes and the suicide of his wife.

New Albany, Ind., has a curfew law and it was tried for the first time Tuesday night. When the bell rang at 9 o'clock the streets were soon filled with kids of all ages, some of them rushing about in their night clothes trying to locate the "fire."

The First Regiment is the only one from Kentucky that gets to go to war. It was the last regiment to get off to Porto Rico before the sailing order was revoked. The end of hostilities finds the Second at Chickamauga, the Third at Newport News and the Fourth at Lexington, Ky.

The Gentrys of the State have been having a week's reunion in the Bluegrass and "family branches" from all over the country are there. Our friend Col. Craddock was there, probably recounting how he waited on some of the Gentry girls before he went to the Mexican war. It is rather difficult to lose the Colonel in any crowd where a feast is on the program.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, will be eighteen years old August 31 and will be crowned Queen of Holland on September 6. Queen Wilhelmina now holds a position in the eyes of the world much like that which Queen Victoria held sixty-one years ago, when she began her unequalled reign. She is now a fair-haired, pretty young woman, with a well developed, supple figure. She is essentially womanly and gentle in her manners. From now on the subject of matrimony will be inseparably associated with the Queen. She is going to marry for love. Who will it be? She is good looking, amiable, accomplished, rich beyond computation. He will be a fortunate man. Queen Wilhelmina is like Queen Victoria in that she inherits the throne after a monarch notorious for his depravity. Victoria's accession was separated by only a few years from the death of George IV., the worst debauchee in Europe. Wilhelmina's father, King William III., who died in 1890, left an unsavory reputation behind him as the Dutch Don Juan.

KY. CROP REPORT.

Condition of Crops August 1st,

Reports from 152 Correspondents

In 103 Counties of the State.

Corn.

The corn crop as a whole presents very satisfactory condition. Portions of the State embracing the entire counties of Carroll, Gallatin, Trimble, Kenton, Campbell, Grant and Bracken in the central section, with portions of the counties of Muhlenberg, Meade and Breckinridge in the western and Pulaski and Laurel in the eastern section, suffered serious injury from frost, which was not relieved until July 26-28. Much of the injury will be permanent and the crop of these counties will be short, percentage running as low as 40 in Bracken, 50 in Kenton, and 53 in Campbell county.

In the western section, in addition to the injury from frost in Breckinridge, Muhlenberg and Meade counties, a section composed of the counties of Todd, Webster and Crittenden, has suffered from an excess of moisture. Some damage from chinch bug is also reported from this section. No very low percentage of condition is reported from the western section.

The condition for the State averages 97, which is an improvement of one point during July. On August 1st, 1897, the condition was 93, and on same date of 1896 the condition was 85.

In the three subdivisions of the State the condition averages 98 for the western, 94 for the central and 100 for the eastern. The condition improved materially during the month in the western section while it appears to have fallen slightly in the central. In the eastern section the condition remains exactly as reported July 1st.

Tobacco.

Tobacco has not fared well during July. The wide difference in the condition of the early and late set tobacco was accentuated during the month and it now appears that a very little of the late setting can be counted upon to make either a good yield or a good quality of the article. So pronounced are reports of these points that it may be set down as assured that the anticipated large crop will not be realized.

The increase in acreage, which was estimated at 23 per cent, compared with the acreage of 1897, would give scarcely a normal acreage, since the acreage of 1897 was abnormally small. In the central or Burley district the increase was notably small, 9 per cent. The largest increase, 36 per cent, being reported from the eastern section, where but a small proportion of the crop is growing, greatly strengthens this view of the case.

The crop shows an average condition of 83 for the State, which is a falling off of 9 points during July. On August 1st, 1897, the condition was 61, and for a corresponding date of 1896 it was 87.

In the western section of the State the crop has suffered from frost in a few counties and from excess of moisture in others with the result that the condition has fallen from 93, July 1st, to 86, August 1st.

In the central section dry weather is the principal source of evil.

Little or no complaint is made of worms. A few counties report a high average condition, notably Bourbon, 120, Scott, 110, and Fleming, 105, but a report above a condition of 80 is an exception rather than a rule. The condition for this section averages 75. On July 1st the condition for the section was 84.

Of the counties of the eastern section very few produce a crop for other than home market. Here the condition is 87.

Hemp.

The condition of the hemp crop compared with an average is 84. On July 1st the condition was 86. On August 1st, 1897, the condition was 79, and on a corresponding date of 1896 the condition was 95.

As was the case last month, there still remains a wide difference in the condition of the crop in the various counties where it is produced. Boyle reports a condition of 40, while in Scott county the condition is 120.

Timothy Meadows.

The yield of timothy is 90 per cent of the yield for average years. The yield in the western section is 95 per cent of an average, while in the central section the yield is an 92 per cent of average years.

Pastures and Live Stock.

Pastures are good, with the exception of a portion of the central section, where it has been too dry, however, the condition averages 99. In the western section the condition compared with average years is 101. Live stock are thrifty as a rule. The only disease noted outside of a normal number of reports of hog cholera is "pink eye" among cattle in Carlisle county.

LUCAS MOORE,

Commissioner of Agriculture.

Sudden Death at Mayfield.

Dr. J. T. Chiles, aged 70, died very suddenly late Tuesday afternoon at his home in Mayfield. He was seated at the supper table with his family, when without warning he fell face forward to the floor, and expired in a few minutes.

QUEEN WILHELMINA.

Her Coronation Will Take Place on September 6.

The Main Celebration Will Be at Amsterdam, and the Ancient City Will Do Its Best to Make It a Success.

It is surely women's era when three queens rule as many nations of Europe. This will be the case when the next great event of the year will have passed into history by the installation of Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, daughter of the late King William III, and of his second wife, Princess Emma. The ceremony of crowning the girl queen of the Netherlands will take place in the New church Amsterdam, on September 6.

Wilhelmina has grown up with the eyes of a nation watching her, and already she is the chosen friend of every child in an unusually attractive woman. Her budding beauty has been raved over and written about as few other young women looks have been. Her mental qualities have been praised in the way that marks the heart of a less valiant people. In short, she is the ideal of the nation and the pride of every Dutchman in the Netherlands since she first won their hearts as a child of seven riding a pretty little Shetland pony.

Now that the time has come when she is to leave childhood behind and become the queen and the queen, the picture she presents is one that the nation respects as well as loves. For Wilhelmina is a dignified miss.

She will have need of all her self-possession at her coronation, however, for the ordeal will be a trying one. Wilhelmina is supposed to come of age on that date. As a usual thing, boys and girls of the Netherlands do not come of age until they are 23, but in this case

QUEEN WILHELMINA.
(To Be Crowned September 6 at Amsterdam, Holland.)

Wilhelmina, being a queen, is allowed to come of age on her eighteenth birthday.

On the 31st of August, therefore, the queen regent will cease to rule and Wilhelmina will become queen of the Netherlands, although her coronation will not take place until September 6.

The programme is already arranged, and it is an interesting one.

The queen, in the queen regent's attire, will be shown the birthday of the former will have been suitably celebrated a few days previously, on September 5, early in the afternoon.

Arriving at the Weespervoorst station, at Amsterdam, they will be met by the leading citizens and representatives of the country, accompanied by an escort of hussars, will be driven to the palace by a route sufficiently circuitous to enable a vast concourse of spectators to witness the procession. In every street to be traversed the decorations will be of the most ornate description, and a joyous gaiety will prevail throughout the day at every turn, while a portion of the route, it is expected, will be lined by representatives of "labor corporations," carrying their respective banners.

Between the hours of seven and eight on the following morning (September 6) curious must will fill up the ears of citizens and strangers. The different chimes, trumpeters are to play excepts from sacred works, surely a novel departure in revellies.

At 11 o'clock on the same day, according to present arrangements, the coronation service will take place in the Nieuwe Kerk.

In the afternoon the queen will again dress up the town and will visit, among other districts, the Jordaan, thus closing the Jewish quarter.

With the fall of night the city is to be brilliantly illuminated, and it is expected that the queen will be driven through the streets in order that she may see the bright and radiant devices prepared for her.

The following morning will also be ushered in with musical strains, and at ten o'clock Queen Wilhelmina is to be serenaded by the Netherlands Choral Society. The afternoon will witness a great popular festival, near that won't be the grandest, which the Rembrandt's masterpiece. From the name of the queen, accompanied by her attendant, will witness an allegorical and historical procession, which is being organized on an elaborate scale, with the view of illustrating, in picturesque fashion, the principal events that have marked the history of the nation.

Following this will be a "water carnival," in connection with which the crafts in the harbor and canals will be gayly illuminated.

On the next day (September 8) she will probably pay a visit in company with her mother to the section of the city of Amsterdam, which is devoted to the trade of leather.

HE WAS IN IT.

Lieut. Radford Writes of His Experience at Santiago.

He Handled a Battery on the Texas and Was in the Midst Of the Fight.

Lieut. C. S. Radford, of the Texas, under the date of July 27, wrote a letter to his brother, Mr. Jas. A. Radford, from which the following extracts are taken. He was enroute to New York, where his ship now is:

Your letter of the 3rd received just as we were leaving Guantamano, and I was indeed delighted to hear from you all, and very much gratified to know that the good citizens of Hopkinsville and vicinity are following the career of the "Texas" with so much interest and concern. I sincerely trust that they may always find her equal to their just expectations. The Spanish officers seem to give us considerable credit for accuracy of fire on the 3rd of July. It appears from a statement by one of the Maria Teresa officers that one of our shots cut their fire main and killed or disabled eighty men. It is also conceded that a shot from the "Texas" finished up the "Vizcaya" forcing her to the beach.

I visited all the ships after the battle and the destruction and loss was simply appalling. Dead men or charred bodies were everywhere. It was either impossible to, or there was no effort to rescue the wounded, so fierce was the fire, and these poor fellows lie in the most natural positions about the ladders and gangways. On the "Oquendo" the hatches were never opened and in consequence nearly everyone in the engine room force and powder divisions was destroyed. One of the rescued officers told me that the screams and cries of these dying, burning people were heart-rending and sickening.

The last time I visited the Vizcaya I could scarcely stand the terrible stench as the bodies had then begun to decompose. The sick bay forward on the gun deck was literally filled with bodies—poor fellows who were doubtless waiting their turns for removal when the forward magazine and bow torpedoes exploded, converting all the forward part of the ship into a veritable mass of fire. In the sighting hood of the forward turret sits an officer apparently directing the fighting of his eleven-inch gun, but stone dead, while just inside are several of his crew who had shared his awful fate. The accuracy of our fire is very apparent on the hulls of those ships.

In a space of about twenty feet on the Oquendo I counted fifteen shot holes, ranging from eight-inch to one-pounder. As their upper works are all gone, it is impossible to judge what we did there, but the Spaniards say that they suffered more from this fire than all the rest, as the splinters and debris carried all in its track. After looking over the wrecks professionally I devoted a little time to picking up relics, and so managed to gather in a few burned articles of more or less interest. I have several rifle barrels, a couple of bayonets, a 22 Smith & Wesson revolver and a few burned coins.

On the Colon I recovered a sextant and a nice electric drop-light. I will ship a box home shortly after our arrival in New York. We are going north to be docked and as there is nothing to do in the West Indies I trust that we may remain in this climate for some time.

As to the war I hardly know what to say as the Spaniards can not be regarded as same people. We would naturally think they would have enough, but they don't seem to have a statesman in the entire Kingdom. We will undoubtedly bombard their cities if they don't take water within the next month.

As soon as we are docked we are to join the European squadron, at least that is the program now, but of course, it may be changed even before we get in.

Mr. Walker Getting Well.

Mr. J. T. Walker, the well-known young coal oil man, has been quite sick for several days, but his condition is much improved to-day and he will be out in a few days.

MARRIED THE GIRL.

John Radford, col., Stops the Proceedings for Seduction.

Takes as His Bride Maggie Hooks, the Girl Who Had Him Arrested.

John Radford, col., who was arrested in Henderson on a charge of seduction and brought here and put in jail is out and has exchanged a prison cell for the pleasures of a honeymoon. When Radford found he was in such a serious scrape, he proposed to marry the girl if she would consent.

The girl in the case was Maggie Hooks, of Longview, and a messenger was sent to interview her on the subject. She readily agreed to the plan and came to town and the couple were married at the home of constable John Kight. The charge was accordingly dismissed and Radford is out-to-day and has left for Longview with his bride.

WATERMELON FEAST.

The Newest Thing Out in Novel Entertainments.

Herndon, Ky., Aug. 9.—(Correspondence KENTUCKIAN).—"Therein, it raineth every day" affords me the opportunity of again dropping you a few items.

Herndon has absolutely assumed such city airs that she now supports a first class "flying Jenny" run by steam and the usual musical accompaniments. I have not seen it in operation and can't tell you of the extent of its patronage.

By invitation quite a number of young people assembled at the residence of Mr. S. F. Embry near here, last Sunday evening. The occasion being the 16th anniversary of his only son, Palmer, which has been his custom to celebrate by a watermelon feast since he was three years old. A novel and pleasing feature of the entertainment was the guessing prize contest. Mr. Embry selected a medium sized watermelon and had each guest to guess at the number of seed it contained. These guesses were all written and kept secret, and the prize was to be the two largest melons, to the nearest number. Strange to say no one present had ever guessed at or counted the seed in a melon. The medium melon was then cut, and a slice given to each guest to eat and the seed to be saved and counted. When this was done it was found that 996 was the number it contained. And the nearest guess was 965, which was Mr. Embry's. He promptly presented the fruit of his guess to his fair neighbor, Miss Nannie Dickerson, to whom I am satisfied he would gladly give the whole patch. The wildest guess was that of Miss Lucy Harris, which was 1. The fact is, I don't think Miss Lucy could think of any greater number that evening. Those present could tell you why.

Our community was shocked this morning to hear of the death of the Hon. M. D. Davie, which occurred last night about 10 o'clock at his residence near Beverly. Heart trouble was the supposed cause. Mr. Davie was about 71 years of age, a ripe scholar and a gentleman in his true sense. He was not a Christian by profession, but he was by practice, and may God help the miserable theology that sees but a happy eternity for a man whose heart was full of love for humanity and a holy reverence for Deity.

HUSTLED OUT OF BED.

By an Early Morning Fire on Brown Street.

Mr. R. L. Burrus Suffers a Loss of $2,000 on His Residence.

The Fire Department was called out at 1:55 last night, the fire bearing the residence of Robt. L. Burrus, on Brown street.

It was a frame cottage and burned so rapidly that the house was soon destroyed, although the department was on the scene in a very short while.

The property was recently purchased by Mr. Burrus from the Brown estate.

Mr. Burrus' loss is supposed to be about $2,000. It was insured for $1,600, $1,100 on the house and $500 on the contents, with the agency of Henry & Leavel, in the Orient company.

A very fine set of mahogany furniture owned by the Brown estate was stored in the house and was also lost.

Mr. Burrus has moved into one of the Brown cottages next door.

The origin of the fire is not known. The family was aroused by the falling of plastering and found the flames raging fiercely over their heads.

JOHN LOGSDON HURT.

In the Yennington Accident—He Used to Live Here.

Twenty passengers were aboard, and nearly all were more or less injured, including several ladies. A relief train, with Drs. Curd and Robertson aboard, went to the rescue.

Superintendent J. W. Logsdon, of the Cumberland Valley division of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, sustained a rib fracture and was otherwise considerably bruised. Manager Charles P. Perin, of the Watts Steel and Iron Syndicate, was bruised about the head and breast, and W. W. Tinsley, of Barboursville, President of the Knox County Fair, was badly injured, perhaps fatally. His little boy was slightly injured. Tinsley was inured in trying to get his boy from danger.
